About ULI

ULI, the Urban Land Institute, is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit research and education organization supported by its members.

Founded in 1936, we now have more than 32,000 members worldwide, representing the entire spectrum of land use and real estate development disciplines working in private enterprise and public service.

A multidisciplinary real estate forum, ULI facilitates an open exchange of ideas, information, and experience among industry leaders and policy makers dedicated to creating better places.

ULI Hawaii has nearly 250 members and works to educate its members and the community on best practices in creating great communities. All ULI Hawaii sponsorship funds go to support Hawaii based activities.

The mission of the Urban Land Institute is to provide leadership in the responsible use of land and in creating and sustaining thriving communities worldwide. ULI is a 501(c)(3) educational organization. ULI neither lobbies nor acts as an advocate for any single industry. ULI examines land use issues, impartially reports findings, and convenes forums to find solutions to complex land use problems, collaborating with industry and stakeholder groups worldwide. ULI advocates better land use planning, better growth patterns and better development to improve the overall quality of life in our communities. Please see our ULI Hawaii website at <http://hawaii.uli.org>.
